EUPHONIUM VIRTUOSO COLLECTION

The Euphonium Collection is a new series of euphonium solos arranged by Luc Vertommen especially for Steven Mead and offers study and performance opportunities for every aspiring soloist. Top quality arrangements available in different versions for soloist and band.

NEW!

Ich liebe dich/I love Thee Edvard Grieg Dur : 2.25 Difficulty : 1/6

A song of a different kind, which has hardly ever been surpassed for the perfection which it depicts a strong momentary emotion.

Rondo in g opus 94 Antonin Dvorak Dur : 8.50 Difficulty : 5/6

A virtuoso work considered as the beginning of the composer's so called 'American' creative period. Typically Dvorak character and charm in which the melancholic traits reflect the mood of Dvorak, facing a long separation from his country. A fine vehicle for a virtuoso performer.

La Foi Georg Golterman Dur : 3.33 Difficulty : 2/6

A pure Victorian ballad with real beauty in its fervent solemnity.

Figaro Variations on Rossini's 'The Barber of Seville' Mario Castelnuovo-Tedesco Dur : 6.40 Difficulty : 5/6

A concert transcription that takes as its theme that of the famous Largo al factotum from the Rossini opera. Piquant harmonies add varying colours to the work as the theme appears in different guises and with various demands for technical virtuosity.

Chant du Ménestrel (Minstrel's Song) opus 71 Alexander Glazunov Dur : 4.13 Difficulty : 4/6

Dating from 1900 and the third of three works composed for Russian cellist Anatoly Brandukov but made immortal by Mstislav Rostropovich.

Berceuse opus 16 Gabriel Fauré Dur : 4.28 Difficulty : 3/6

Written in 1879 – a gentle piece of lovely French music in the same vein of lyrical sweetness as the Méditation from Massenet's Thaïs.

Short Story George Gershwin Dur : 2.59 Difficulty 2/6

Arranged from Gershwin's Novelettes by violinist Samuel Dushkin. The euphonium version takes you to the entrance, at least of Tin Pan Alley.

Moscovienne opus 2 Pablo Sarasate Dur : 3.56 Difficulty : 6/6

Music of infinite charm and elegance and elements of passion and virtuosity. Played by the great Spanish violinist during the intermissions at the opera in Tsarist Russia. A fabulous concert piece worth some extra hours of euphonium practice.

Complete Music for euphonium and piano

Jules-Emile Demersseman (1833-1866)

Two books (hard bound) with the complete original euphonium music by this obscure Franco-Belgian composer. Composed especially for the new trombone with six independent valves by Adolphe Sax and published by Sax himself in 1856. Finally available for all euphonium students in a new edition by Luc Vertommen & Gery Dumoulin in a luxury modern edition. With a foreword about the historical background of the composer, the instrument and the music both in English/Dutch/French and German. Don't miss the exemplary new recording of all this stunning music by Euphonium Virtuoso Steven Mead.

Twee boeken (harde kaft) met de volledige en originele muziek voor euphonium door deze obscure Frans-Belgische componist. Speciaal gecomponeerd voor de nieuwe trombone met zes onafhankelijke ventielen van Adolphe Sax en door Sax zelf uitgegeven in 1856. Eindelijk beschikbaar voor alle euphonium spelers in een nieuwe uitgave door Luc Vertommen en G ery Dumoulin in een luxueuze moderne uitgave. Met een voorwoord omtrent de historische achtergrond van de componist, het instrument en de muziek in het Nederlands/Engels/Frans en Duits.

In 1973 became the resident conductor of the world famous Brighouse and Rastrick Band, there to stay for 10 years. During this period he conducted them to premier place in the National Finals in 1980 and was also responsible for their 'chart-topping' success of "The Floral Dance".

He repeated his success in the hit-charts in Switzerland and Belgium where he regularly visited the Zuiderkempische Brassband in the 70's and 80's. He arranged a complete album of Flemish Folk Songs for them and the single 'Het Loze Vissertje' and 'My Second Home' (dedicated to his Flemish friends) was a hit in those days. All these catchy arrangements are published for the first time and can be played separately as concert pieces or as a suite or 'concept piece' as a longer tribute to Flanders
